Hi Kevin,

From now on, I have no control over this process. I can ask our liaison for weekly updates, but other than that I can only guess that it will take at least 2 to 3 weeks for it to get through the next signature phase and move to the Administrator's office. I just don't know. I will keep you informed.

Happy 4th of July! I will plan to go to the mall and watch the fireworks. It helps that I can walk home and not deal with traffic or public transportation!

Great! Thank you for your hard work and the update. I know you said things are going to be out of your hands, but do you know now or will you know in the future when the next briefing will be scheduled?

I imagine the 4th of July in D.C. would awesome...hope you have a enjoy your holiday weekend.

Hi Kevin and Craig,

I briefed Peter on ND's Class VI primacy application and Peter has signed the package today. We will route to OW on Monday. I will keep you posted on progress and timing as I am updated.

Thanks,
